Hats off for world record attempt

RESIDENTS all over the town are being encouraged to sign up for a new world record attempt.

Museum Makers, the group behind the viral 'Luton Happy' video, say they want 2,000 people to gather in Wardown Park on August 16 to become the 'largest gathering of people wearing boater hats'.

Currently the record stands at 250 but the Museum Makers said they were hoping to set a new one.

Luton has a long, historic association with the hat industry, and still has a number of manufacturers based in the town.

On their website, the Museum

Makers said: "We were overwhelmed by the feedback and support received as a result of the #lutonhappy video and we wanted to continue this positive vibe by getting our town involved in achieving something great."

If you interested in being part of the record attempt you can sign up by visiting www.museummakers.co.uk and registering your details.

Council denies new claim over 'true' cost of busway

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON council has paid out more than £78m for the construction costs of the town's controversial busway, a senior councillor has claimed.

That it is almost £22 million more than the authority's target cost of £56.6 million for the project.

Cllr David Franks, leader of the Liberal Democrats, says he has evidence which shows that the council has parted with £78.3m for the work done on the new transport system between Luton and Dunstable.

The council has rejected his claims and says the figures Cllr Franks has alleged are 'hugely inaccurate'.

The authority is currently in dispute with the contractor of the Luton Dunstable Busway over how much should be paid for the work.

A spokesman said it was currently looking at a 'target cost' of £56.6m.

Cllr Franks said that a council officer who has been working on the busway confirmed during a public meeting in April that the authority had already paid £78.3m.

He added that the same figures had been given to him in an email from a senior council finance officer.

Cllr Franks said: "I am satisfied that the figures I have stated are correct."

"I quoted these figures in questions to the officer presenting the busway update at the Scrutiny meeting in April. He confirmed them and advised that when the final costs were agreed, the council would claim back from the contractor any excess which had been paid over and above the final agreed cost."

"I have documentary evidence to confirm this."

"If anyone in the council is now saying these figures are not correct then it looks very much like they are trying to conceal the true figures."

"Any cover-up can only be to prevent embarrassment and that's not a good enough reason for concealing the figures."

"A very great deal of taxpayers' money is being spent on this project and the taxpayers are entitled to know where it is going."

A council spokesman said: "We must stress that all figures quoted except the current target cost are hugely inaccurate."

"The target cost remains largely the same at around £56.5m as you have quoted and as reported to this Council's Executive."

"Luton Borough and Central Bedfordshire Councils remain in a process of confidential negotiation with the Luton Dunstable Busway scheme's main contractor so cannot reveal details of payments made, or the sums in dispute, as this is commercially sensitive information which would potentially prejudice any settlement."

"As regards payments up front, Luton Council has previously reported to Executive the terms of the NEC contract employed."

"This is a standard contract as recommended for use by public sector organisations when procuring major construction programmes and required by central Government which has funded the majority of this project."

"At such time as the matter is concluded, or it otherwise becomes appropriate to do so, the financial details of the contract will of course be made available to the public."

£700k fund to fix the potholes in our roads

BY CARL MUNGAZI
editor@lutonsunday.co.uk

RESIDENTS in Luton and Dunstable are set to benefit from more than £700,000 of funding to fix potholes blighting our roads, the Government has announced.

Luton will receive £200,018 to repair 3,000 potholes whilst Central Bedfordshire, which covers Dunstable, will get £592,075 to fill in 11,000 holes.

The money is part of a nationwide initiative in which more than three million potholes are to be filled as part of the biggest investment in roads since the 1970s.

Councils across England have been allocated the £168 million of funding from a dedicated pothole repair fund.

However, as a condition of receiving the money, local authorities are required to publish monthly progress updates on how many potholes have been repaired.

The Government says this is the latest in a series of announcements which will see more than £24 billion spent on England's strategic road network between 2010 and 2021.

According to the Department for Transport, Parliament is now considering legislation that will transform the Highways Agency into a Government-owned company backed by 'locked-in' funding.

REPAIRS: Potholes will be fixed with new Government funding

A Government spokesman said the changes are meant to eliminate the 'uncertain stop-start' funding processes of the past and save taxpayers at least £2.6 billion over the next 10 years.

The investment in the road network is reflected by a further £7.4 billion committed to local roads in the next Parliament, along with funding from the £12 billion Local Growth Fund.

Transport Secretary Patrick McLoughlin said: "Potholes are the bane of all our lives and the funding announced today is an important step in ridding our roads of this menace."

"But it is only one part of a massive programme of investment to get our country up to speed as part of this Government's long term economic plan.

"By building, repairing and renewing our key infrastructure we will ensure the future growth and prosperity of this county."

The funding follows a competition in which councils were invited to apply for a share of the £168 million, which includes £10 million being available for London.

All repair works have to be completed by the end of March next year with councils required to publish quarterly updates so that local residents can see how many potholes or miles of resurfacing has been undertaken in their area.

Prime Minister David Cameron said: "Investing in our roads is a key part of our long term economic plan."

"A modern economy needs modern infrastructure, so businesses can create more jobs, commuters can get to work, and families can get on with their lives."

"We have already made a historic investment in Britain's road network - the biggest since the 1970s."

"Potholes damage cars, motorbikes and cycles and cost hardworking people money for repairs."

"Helping fill in potholes is helping hardworking families and we need to do more of it."

TAXI DRIVERS HURT IN ATTACK

THREE taxi drivers in Luton were injured after being threatened with knives and bottles on Monday (June 16). The attack took place in Strangers Way at around 8.30pm when a group of youths on BMX-type bikes began to throw stones at taxis. The drivers challenged the youths but they began to throw more stones and threatened the drivers with a knife and bottles. After the attack, the drivers, aged 28, 32 and 35, were left with bruising to their faces whilst the youths left the scene towards Home Court. Anyone with information can contact Luton Police Station, on 01582 394210 or 101.

FIGURES SHOW RISE IN INFECTIONS

NEW figures show a rise in sexually transmitted infections across Luton and Central Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire, Northamptonshire and Milton Keynes. The total of new sexually transmitted infections diagnoses rose by 1,283 cases (seven per cent) last year. Luton alone experienced 389 more cases than the previous year, according to new Public Health England (PHE) data.

KERRY DIXON FACES DRUG CHARGE

FORMER Chelsea and England striker Kerry Dixon from Dunstable has been charged with possession of a Class A controlled drug. The 52-year-old has been told he will have to appear before magistrates in Luton, on August 14 at 10am. The ex-player, and Kim White, 46, both of Jardine Way, Dunstable are charged with possession of a class A controlled drug and will appear together at court. They were charged on Wednesday at Luton Police Station and granted bail.

Town MP says he is 'humbled' by accolade for community work

AN MP has been given an award for his work on behalf of the UK's Kashmiri community.

Gavin Shuker, MP for Luton South, was given the accolade by the Jammu Kashmir Self Determination Movement Europe (JKSDME) for his services as the shadow International Development Minister, and as an MP in a town with a large number of Kashmiris.

The MP said he was 'humbled' to have been given the accolade at a ceremony this week.

He said: "I know how important it is for the people of Kashmir to have their voices heard."

"This is something that Kashmiris have been fighting decades for, both in their homeland and by gathering support across the world - especially here in Britain."

"It is appalling that the people of Kashmir continue to suffer human rights abuses on a daily basis while the battle for ownership of the region remains unresolved."

"I have spoken to many Kashmiris in Luton about this, and understandably, they are very concerned about the safety of their friends and family back in Kashmir."

Artist works on Prince George birthday book!

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAKE-UP artist who has worked with celebrities such as Gok Wan and Mylene Klass has added to her list of illustrious clients with her work on a birthday book for Prince George.

Mandy Spencer (pictured), from Wigmore, has been doing the make-up for actors featuring in the book which will be on display in Harrods and sent to heads of state around the world.

The book will accompany a bath which is being specially made by bespoke furniture maker Grace of London for the Prince's birthday on July 22.

It will feature stories by Robert Grace, the owner of Grace of London, explaining his designs.

Mandy, who was educated at Lea Manor, previously worked in the United States before moving back to Luton 12 years ago.

She said she got the job working on Prince George's present as a result of networking with some of her contacts.

She said: "I did the make-up on a shoot two weeks ago and then we have some more days when we will do it."

MADE UP: Mandy is based at the Jessica Louise store at the Barton Watermill centre

"One of the pictures is a 50s-style story, another is a 60s-style and we have one with the actor Jon Campling. "He is acting like an eccentric English gentleman."

"We also have another that is modelled on the Chinese empire and it has a red dragon."

She added: "It's been wonderful and a really good experience."

"I have met a lot of people and now I am working with one of the agencies in London on a covergirl shoot."

"I am also doing a lot more with Grace of London and I have got a new contract with another company."

Flag raising for Armed Forces Day

ARMED Forces Day will be marked tomorrow (Monday) with a flag raising at Luton town hall.

The event is being led by the Mayor Cllr Farooq Mohammed before a community festival in Lewsey on Saturday to mark national Armed Forces Day.

Tomorrow's flag raising begins with the Rev Janet Mackenzie and the Mayor conducting a short ceremony in recognition of the dedication of our nation's army personnel over the years.

It will be attended by civic dignitaries from the county as well as local councillors and representatives from the community and ex-service associations.

Cllr Mohammed said: "Armed Forces Day is a great opportunity to show support to the nation's serving personnel, veterans and families."

"I hope members of the public will join us and pay tribute to the men and women who work tirelessly to protect the security and interests of our country."

"The Council signed the Armed Forces Community Covenant last November and this event acknowledges our continued commitment in supporting local armed services men and women – past and present – recognising the many sacrifices they have made."

Mare's suffering revealed in report

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

NEARLY 300 people from the South East and Eastern region, including a 62-year-old man from Luton, were convicted of animal welfare offences last year.

The figures were released this week by the RSPCA in their annual Prosecution Report.

The 62-year-old was disqualified from keeping animals for 10 years after a young cob cross mare was found in an extremely underweight and poorly condition with her dead foal nearby.

He was also made to pay costs of £1,000 and given eight weeks imprisonment, suspended for one year.

The mare, called Bluey, was found in a field off Mangrove Green, Cockernhoe in April last year.

She had been heavily pregnant but with a heavy worm burden, she miscarried her almost full-term foal.

She was emaciated, her bones and thin frame were visible through the material of her rug and she had severe thrush in all four hooves.

But despite receiving treatment, Bluey's condition sadly deteriorated and she had to be put to sleep to end her suffering.

WEAK: The RSPCA said Bluey was put to sleep to 'end her suffering'

Following the publication of the report, RSPCA inspector Tina Ward, said: "This poor pony was riddled with worms and was emaciated."

"Her body was so weak it just could not cope with the pregnancy.

"We had advised Bluey's owner about appropriate care regarding other horses on previous occasions and he ought to have known how to provide for her needs or at least sought help before it was too late."

Teen victim of sword attack

A 16-YEAR-OLD suffered significant injuries to his lower leg after being attacked with a sword.

The teenager was walking with his father past Hickman Court in Wauluds Bank Drive on June 13 at 10pm when a group of up to eight youths approached them from the direction of the underpass.

They asked him his name and when he told them, one of the group attacked his leg with the sword.

The assault was carried out with such force the teenager required surgery to repair the damage to below the knee.

The group then made off in the direction of Waleys Close. Bedfordshire Police have described the assailants as a mixture of black and mixed race males wearing dark clothing. They all had their faces covered.

Investigating Officer Gary Hales said the attack was 'appalling, cowardly' and 'unprovoked'.

He added: "The people who did this are violent and aggressive and need to be identified for the protection of the local community."

Pair accused of drain clean con

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

TWO men have denied trying to charge a woman to clean out her blocked drain which was actually a public sewer that Anglian Water would clear for free.

The pair, Neal Martin, 37, of Heron Way, Hatfield, and Mark Sellers, 45, of Oaklands Road, London, are both charged with being a trader engaged in a commercial practice which is a misleading omission on April 15 last year.

Mr Martin, as the director of the company involved, Partners Maintenance Limited, is also charged with two counts of a complaint made by the customer, Elizabeth Thompson on April 15 and 26, 2013.

The allegation is that Mr Martin quoted a price of £732 to Ms Thompson to clear the drain at her home in Leighton Court, Dunstable, and that both him and Mr Sellers, having assessed the drain, failed to inform her it was a public sewer and therefore fell under the responsibility of Anglian Water.

Appearing at Luton Magistrates' Court on Tuesday both men pleaded not guilty to the charges and elected trial by jury at Luton Crown Court.

The pair will appear at the Crown Court for a preliminary hearing on July 7.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

DAMAGE: Vandals have led to the toilets being closed

Toilets shut after attack by vandals

A SET of toilets have been shut until the end of the month after they were vandalised.

Luton council said they needed to carry out repairs at the toilets in Wardown Park.

A spokesman for the authority said they are due to be re-opened for public use on June 30.

He added that the authority apologised for closure as there are no other toilets nearby.

Warning after spate of county burglaries

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

RESIDENTS are being warned to be vigilant after 18 distraction burglaries were reported in the last two and a half months.

Fifteen of them took place in Barton-le-Clay, Harlington, Houghton Regis, Dunstable and Luton.

The latest burglary was on Monday at around 3pm at the home of a 96-year-old woman in Icknield Way.

A man knocked on her door and told her he was testing the water.

He instructed the pensioner to run a tap and on entry the man knocked the pensioner to the ground before searching the home.

Bedfordshire Police described the man as white, in his 20s with short fair hair and a fringe. He spoke with a Luton accent and wore a light coloured anorak.

Detective Inspector Zara Brown said: "This type of criminal often works with others to dupe their way in to a victim's home or distract them whilst others commit the burglary. Every care should be taken to keep them out. Making sure your door is locked and bolted at all times and always using door security chains can help deter criminals."

She added: "I would also like to urge members of the public to always check the identity of all visitors to their homes. Do not let unexpected visitors in to your home at all - no matter how believable their reasons for calling are."

Pleased about council appeal

SIR - I was pleased to see that Central Bedfordshire Council is to lodge a High Court appeal against the monstrosity that Mr Shah calls his home in Private Road, Barton-le-Clay.

I congratulate the council on making a stand, and I sincerely hope they win their appeal to force the demolition of this controversial house extension.

I was born and have lived in the village all my life and I too live in the conservation area of the village.

I consider his house a blot on the landscape and I am totally in agreement that this building should not be allowed to remain in its present state.

A Very Angry Resident
Barton-le-Clay

We remember with pride

SIR - I read with interest the article by Steve Lowe, 'Time to knock war tributes on the head' (Luton on Sunday, June 15).

I agree that war itself should not be celebrated, but we should never forget those who fought in the many wars over the past 100 years.

It is not the veterans who glorify war but the politicians... civilians who have never been placed in danger. Many servicemen and women do not agree with the politicians who send them to conflicts poorly armed and supported.

Help Elliott's Team GB dream

SIR - We have a coach and former gymnast, at SALTO who has been selected to compete for Great Britain in Tumbling.

Elliott Browne, now 17, will be travelling to Portugal in September for a pre-worlds invitation competition and America in November, for the World Championships.

As a junior, he has to fund all his training and travel. He even has to buy his own GB kit! The cost of going, competing and spending the week training at the National Training Centre in Lilleshall comes to £2,500.

There are several camps to attend as well as international training camps and trips to train in Wakefield.

Elliott won many national medals before he started competing for Great Britain last year. In his debut event the World Championships in Bulgaria, he was 5th. Earlier this month, in the European Championships in Portugal, he won a bronze medal. Elliott was awarded the Young Sportsman of the Year for the second year in a row in the annual Luton Sports Network Sports awards in March.

We are holding fund raising events, but we are also asking local companies to sponsor Elliott.

When he steps up to compete as a senior he will have some of these international expenses covered by British Gymnastics. In the meantime we are trying to help. We are asking companies to consider sponsorship of up to £5,000. Or you can support via <http://www.gofundme.com/8kr2d0>.

We are confident he will be bringing home another medal from the USA and his target is gold. Please help a local young man compete for Great Britain. Thank you in advance for any help you decide to provide.

Carl Richardson
Director of Operations, SALTO

Veterans remember their comrades who die or were injured... it is an act of remembrance. Many ex-servicemen's associations are being disbanded because the members are dying, or can no longer attend meetings and parades. Not as Mr Lowe states wrongly - it is time to call a halt.

These clubs exist because they offer comradeship and support. May I suggest that Mr Lowe visit the National Arboretum, walk to the National Memorial, speak to the staff and visitors and perhaps he may have an understanding of why on November 11 we veterans will remember our friends and comrades in an act of dedication. yes, with pride, wearing our blazers and medals.

Calling all young entrepreneurs

SIR - I am calling on any budding entrepreneurs, aged 16-25, who are studying (or indeed have studied) at any FE or sixth form college in the area.

Together with the Edge Foundation and the Gazelle Group of Colleges, we are supporting the Edge Challenge. This is the opportunity for a young person to win £3,000 towards starting up his/her own business, together with the help of a top mentor for six months. Also up for grabs are second and third prizes of £1,250 and £750, as well as a new Team Prize of £5,000 for a group of up to five people.

Closing date for entries is September 26, 2014, so plenty of time to get your plans in. Shortlisted entrants will be invited to come and pitch their idea to a panel in London and the final five (three individuals and two teams) will showcase their business model at the Skills Show. This is held at the NEC from November 13-15, where the overall winners will be announced.

Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity. Application forms can be found at www.edge.co.uk/edgechallenge.

Good luck!

Hey teachers! You just need thought control

THE Government is between a rock and a hard place with regard to education at the moment. You could say it is failing on most matters: prison reform, housing, the NHS, welfare. And has banking really changed? I digress and will stick to education. If there is a bigger mess than state schooling at the moment, I haven't seen it.

Michael Gove wanted to free up local comprehensive schools from the heavy hand of the state, a bit of an oxymoron some might say. Still off he went: more Academies, Free Schools, headteachers and governing bodies having more and more say in their own affairs. They could not only opt out of local authority control but also ignore the National Curriculum. The state, as run by the council, was so yesterday.

Local people know best what they want for their children's education. Then came Birmingham. Five schools have been suspected of having suffered a hard line Muslim takeover. There is not much evidence of this but who needs evidence when the words hardline and Muslim are in the same sentence?

It's enough to make you want to vote UKIP. So these not long ago outstanding schools, some of which are Academies, are now in special measures.

And the state is to issue British values, which must be imbued, not just in these schools but all 24,000 institutions.

There's state control for you, or even thought control, and its hand will be heavier than anything socialists could have dreamed of.

I think people once subjugated by this country, many of whose descendants inhabit our city centres, will smile ironically that British values include democracy, liberty, tolerance and respect.

That's a bit like saying Eton is open to everyone. Of course the real issue is being ignored here.

Muslims in Birmingham may or may not have been trying to train young jihadists in our schools but I somehow doubt it.

It is likely, however, that they were bringing their religious views into the mainstream of the schools, which are not universally popular. But then by definition religious views are not universally popular, and, to a greater or lesser extent, are intolerant.

The only real solution is to ban religious schools, and religion from schools, other than in philosophy classes. Is that going to appear in the Conservatives' next manifesto?

What do YOU think?

Community order for 'skunk' dealer

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A YOUNG shop worker, who began dealing in cannabis has been given a 12-month community order.

Police saw Carl Rutter, 21, of Farley Hill, Luton, behind the wheel of his car, talking to a young woman.

It was at the junction of Albert Road and New Town Street in the town and officers became suspicious.

They stopped the car and immediately could detect the tell-tale smell of skunk cannabis coming from inside the vehicle.

Under the driver's seat, officers found 27.5 grams of the drug worth around £280.

At first Rutter claimed the drugs were for his own personal use but when police looked at his mobile phone, they found text messages indicating he was dealing to others.

Claudette Elliott, prosecuting at Luton Crown Court, said messages found included "Can you drop off a £10 bag for me?", "Do us a 10" and "Do us a 20".

Rutter pleaded guilty to possessing the drug with intent to supply.

Passing sentence Judge Stuart Bridge told Rutter: "Your problem is you are addicted to cannabis and that had led you to cross the road into dealing which the courts take seriously."

He gave him a 12-month community order and told Rutter he must carry out 200 hours of unpaid work and pay prosecution costs of £340.

Coaster gift set for

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WHILST England fans were buying their flags and replica kits in preparation for the World Cup, a coaster manufacturer from Dunstable was hard at work producing gifts for the squad's send off.

Quality Coasters was commissioned earlier this month to produce a set of special gift coasters for the England team which was given to them before they jetted off for their World Cup training camp in Miami.

The request had come from The Grove Hotel, where the team stayed before their departure, and 66 sets were given to the squad, staff, and the management.

Pat Bonner (pictured right), who runs the firm from home, said it all started when she received a call from the hotel.

She explained: "I received a call about three weeks ago from the marketing manager of the Grove Hotel and he did not tell me at first what it was all about.

"But then he said that they wanted coasters for the England team as they were staying there at the hotel.

"They wanted the team to walk into their rooms and have something nice, so they asked me for coasters for the entire team and I made 66 sets."

The coasters, like all of Pat's products, were made of Italian ceramic, but these were printed with memorabilia from the 1966 World Cup.

This included an article from the London Herald newspaper about England's victory and a ticket for the final.

Pat said she started making the tiles eight years ago after deciding to close her stone garden ornaments manufacturing business in Edlesborough.

She said: "When I had the idea of putting sports memorabilia on the tiles it really took off.

"I then converted a room at my house into a workshop and I employ someone to work with me.

"My main business is wholesale manufacturing and I supply shops all over the country.

"People say that the tiles are good and that they are a great gift for men."

Find out more about Quality Coasters at www.footballcoasters.co.uk.

CARE VISITS AT HOME

We care passionately

On the 04/06/2014 staff at bluebird care Luton took a few of the customers out to the St. Albans garden centre for an afternoon tea of which they all enjoyed. One customer was very happy to get out as she is unable to do so without a companion. We also took with us the wife of a customer that we care for so she can have a break and be able to socialise with other people.

The purpose for this outing was to enable our customers the chance to access the outside community and to interact with other people as they spend most of the time in doors due to lack of mobility and other health issues that may restrict them from doing daily activities that they would enjoy.

What we offer

We offer everything from personal care to shopping, cleaning or social visits. In fact everything you need to stay in the comfort of your own home.

Alternative

Bluebird Care offers a realistic cost effective alternative to residential care. With familiar friends, relatives and possessions around, Bluebird Care 'Just happens'.

Our staff

Our staff are caring, trained to give medication and police checked.

Inquiry launched into double arson

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

FOUR children have been arrested and bailed on suspicion of arson following a fire at a derelict building.

The fire service was called at 5.11pm last Sunday to tackle the blaze at Sherd Lodge in Sherd Close.

Firefighters were also called out to another fire at a derelict building on the same day at an old nightclub in Upper George Street.

The blaze at Sherd Lodge spread from the first floor of the two-storey building to the roof before being put out.

It caused damage to a wall of the property and two girls, aged 12, and two boys, aged 10, were arrested on suspicion of committing arson by officers close to the scene.

In the second incident, Bedfordshire Police said they were treating the fire in Upper George Street as an arson attack.

It took place between 9.30pm and 10.10pm.

The building has been closed for more than six months and the fire caused considerable damage to the structure of the building.

UNDER INVESTIGATION: Police said they had arrested four youths following a fire on Sunday at derelict Sherd Lodge in Marsh Farm

Detective Constable Colin Knight said: "Scenes of crime officers and fire investigators are continuing to investigate the cause of this fire but we can confirm that we are treating it as arson."

"There was also a second fire reported in the same building on June 13 at 8am and it is possible that the same person is responsible for both incidents."

"The building has been closed for some time and is now in a dangerous state.

"We would urge anyone who has noticed people entering the building or acting suspiciously in the area recently to come forward and assist with this investigation."

Anyone with information on the fires can DC Knight at Luton Police Station on 01582 394069 or 101.

Alternatively, you can also contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Attack man is given suspended sentence

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A DUNSTABLE man who beat up a young man outside the Nags Head in the town centre has been given a suspended sentence.

Glen Tompkins, 34, of West Street in Dunstable, was given a six month prison sentence suspended for 12 months for attacking a man at the side of the pub.

He was also ordered to carry out 180 hours of unpaid work and pay his victim £300 in compensation, as well as £150 towards the cost of the prosecution.

Luton Crown Court heard 25-year-old Darren Campbell was attacked in an alleyway by a number of men.

Officers who were already in High Street North dealing with another incident came across Mr Campbell down on his knees on the pavement and bleeding from his face.

It was the early hours of February 22 and officers spoke to Mr Campbell.

ATTACK: A judge heard that the victim was beaten up near the pub

He then pointed to two males and said: "They are the ones who gave me a kicking."

Judge Stuart Bridge, who was hearing the case, was told one of the men involved in the incident was Glen Tompkins.

He was arrested and charged with assault occasioning actual bodily harm on Mr Campbell.

The court was told Mr Campbell suffered a swollen eye and chipped tooth.

He had been punched and kicked in the attack.

Judge Bridge was also told that Tompkins, who works as a window cleaner, had drunk around seven or eight pints of cider that night.

WHIPSNADE ZOO

'Beauty' treatment

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

ELEPHANTS at Whipsnade Zoo this week had a pamper session as they were given special pedicures in preparation for last night's 'Big Night Out' event.

Zookeepers treated the 10 Asian elephants - including Donna, Kaylee and eight-month-old calf Max - to the beauty session before they took part in the event, which saw Whipsnade open between 6pm and 10pm for visitors.

Speaking about the night, head elephant keeper Lee Sambrook said: "Giving our elephants a pedicure isn't just a way of indulging them in the run up to the event; they are treated to regular foot care sessions to keep their feet in tip top shape and prevent any of their nails from becoming overgrown or misshapen.

"The elephants always seem to enjoy Big Night Out, especially their mile-long walk around the zoo.

"Elephants usually stay up until the early hours of the morning anyway and visitors always love seeing them take their evening stroll."

Cracking down on nuisance motorists

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO people were arrested - one for drug possession and another for drink-driving - following a crackdown on car cruisers and off-road bikers.

Three drivers were reported for having no insurance, another for driving while disqualified, five for having defective vehicles and one other driver for excessive speeding as part an operation in Dunstable last weekend.

Bedfordshire Police said they also seized three vehicles after residents had complained of nuisance motorists.

The force visited various areas including Houghton Regis Green, Downside in Dunstable, Tithe Farm, Parkside and Sewell.

During the operation, officers said they found a 'small minority' of individuals driving their vehicles at excessive speeds, doing donuts and drifting their cars.

Inspector Jim Hitch said: "Operations Meteor and Reservation are long running efforts by Bedfordshire Police to combat the nuisance

OFF ROAD: The force said it received 'numerous complaints' about nuisance motorbikes from residents living near Foster Avenue created by all motorists who find it impossible to drive or ride their vehicles in accordance with the law.

"Officers were able to take full advantage of Section 59 of the Police Reform Act 2002 which gives them the ability to stop anti-social motorists and warn them about their behaviour as well as issuing fines and seizing their vehicles."

He added: "One of the issues that we do have is not being able to chase after every single nuisance driver or motorcyclist but by providing information such as names, addresses or where the vehicle may have been previously, we can build up a picture of the offenders and take appropriate action.

"Drivers and riders need to realise that this sort of behaviour is unacceptable - not only is it an offence, but it is also extremely dangerous for others."

We need a return to the 'golden' economic age

ON THURSDAY, I attended a meeting at the House of Commons of "Economists Against Austerity", of whom I am one. We were treated to a presentation by my very good (and very intelligent) friend, Michael Meacher MP, about his book "The State We Need".

Michael said that we should be profoundly concerned, angry indeed, that most people in Britain have been made poorer than they were six years ago as real wages and salaries have failed to keep pace with prices.

By contrast, the richest 1,000 people in Britain, massively rich billionaires, had seen their wealth double in five years. These people live a life beyond our imagining and have been protected by successive governments while millions have become poorer and some utterly impoverished.

Michael also reminded us that Britain was once very different. During a golden age for some 30 years after the end of the Second World War from 1945, living standards for ordinary people rose rapidly, full employment

Luton North MP Kelvin Hopkins explains why we need to return to a time when living standards of ordinary people rose rapidly prevailed, millions of decent homes were built, the National Health Service was established and Britain was still a major manufacturing nation.

But in the late 1970s a new economic "religion" was imposed by government which we now call "neo-liberalism".

High unemployment became permanent, economic instability and low economic growth affected us all, house prices surged out of the reach of millions of people, the banks were allowed to get away with economic murder and industries disappeared. The public utilities – energy, transport etc – were privatised, flogged off cheaply and now mostly foreign-owned, and the rich were allowed to hide their wealth in tax havens while most of us were on PAYE.

It is not surprising that voters have become disenchanted with our leaders, the political class who have brought all this upon us.

But there is an alternative, as Michael and I constantly argue. We should simply re-establish the way we were governed in that golden age. The globalisation, privatisation, free movement of capital and all that which has caused so much damage must be reversed. It would not be difficult and would be enormously popular.

Seventy per cent of the people want the energy companies to be re-nationalised, even more think the railways should be back in public ownership and a majority believe that the free flow of speculative cash across national boundaries should be stopped.

If a political party picked up this agenda and ran with it they would surely romp to victory in a general election.

Take a trip back in time with a ride through the countryside by steam

DAYS OUT

THE CATHEDRALS EXPRESS

Radlett and St Albans to Settle and Carlisle
steamdreams.co.uk

CONTRARY to what the Blackadder series would have us believe, as we approached the Scottish border, a raving mob of flame-haired Celts did not come rushing to attack us.

Instead, with the tantalising smell of steam in the air, the Cathedrals Express chugged its way through the rolling green hills of the Lake District up towards the much fought over city of Carlisle, safe and sound.

Our journey, however, did not begin in the borderlands but almost 300 miles south at Flitwick Station where we picked up the class 47 diesel locomotive which was to haul us all the way to Hellifield.

At a time of the morning I rarely see if possible, we boarded the train and were shown to the most luxurious of the carriages: Pullman style dining.

There we valiantly chomped our way through a five course breakfast of the most beautifully fresh and fluffy croissants you've ever tasted outside of France, fruit compôte, porridge, breads, and to top it off, a full English with a hearty Lincolnshire Sausage and Sussex Bacon accompanied by a glass of champagne.

The route of the journey, which actually began in Radlett and St Albans shortly after 6am, went winding through the East Midlands via Bedford*, stopping only at Leicester, East Midlands Parkway and Sheffield before heading west up to the Lake District and Carlisle.

Once we reached Hellifield we stopped briefly to switch engines to the Stanier 8F, which was originally designed for hauling heavy freight.

Obviously it was not so adept at hauling heavy freight that it could take us, full of a five-course breakfast as we were, all the way from Radlett to Carlisle and back, although to its credit there are some tasks that even Hercules himself would struggle with. From there we began the steady ascent towards Cumbria's largest town, eventually arriving at around 2.30pm. During the couple of hours we had to explore the city we had a look around the castle, the cathedral and even went on a search for Hadrian's Wall.

Back on board we were once again served a sublime five-course dinner of canapés, amuse bouche, feta and chive terrine with salad, roast lamb and a white chocolate and raspberry mousse, which left everybody feeling absolutely stuffed – and that was before the cheese board arrived.

If you're a fan of steam trains, and even if you're not, the Radlett to Carlisle trip was a fantastic day out. And it's not the only service run by Steam Dreams.

You can travel from Milton Keynes or Northampton to Carlisle, Southend to York, London to Penzance or pick from a whole host of other destinations.

For a full list of this year's trips on the Cathedrals Express and to book, visit steamdreams.co.uk/ For £225pp (for Pullman style dining) you'll be treated to first class service, stunning views, and hopefully get to go somewhere new. My one and only criticism, if I had to make one, would be that the breakfast didn't come with beans. Hardly a travesty but we all love a bit of Heinz in the morning.

On the day we travelled the service didn't stop at Bedford. Alternative arrangements were made for it to stop at Flitwick and any costs incurred paid by Steam Dreams.*

Win a family pass for four to the UK's biggest kids' festival

COMPETITION

LOLLIBOP

Hatfield House
August 15-17

BUILD it, paint it, climb it... LoliBop, the UK's biggest kids' festival, is back.

Taking place at Hatfield House on August 15-17, the all star line-up aimed at children under the age of 10 combines some of the biggest names in kids' entertainment, as well as hundreds of activities and interactive areas.

And to celebrate this, Luton on Sunday has teamed up with LoliBop to offer a family pass to one reader.

The festival programme includes Justin Fletcher, Mr Bloom, Mister Maker, Lazy Town and Sam & Mark on the main stage, plus live shows from Chris & Pui, Postman Pat, Scoobie-Doo, Swashbuckle and many more.

Creative kids will love the new 'join in with Southbank Centre' area with plenty of dress up, make and take and workshops.

There is also a brand new active zone with footballing from Tottenham Hotspur, baby ballet, an old fashioned sports day and martial arts.

Other highlights include Bear Grylls Survival Academy, LoliKitchen, LoliBooks and special areas featuring Thomas and Friends, a Disney silent disco and Skylanders Trap Team.

To enter, answer the following question: Where is the location of LoliBop 2014?

Is it a) Hatfield House, b) Hyde Park or c) Central Park?

Email your answer to carl.mungazi@luton-onsunday.co.uk by June 29. Each pass admits four people, one person must be over 18.

See online for full terms and conditions.

Tear jerker is a screen hit

FILM REVIEW

THE FAULT IN OUR STARS

Out now

TURNING up to review this film at an early fan screening showed what a great Twilight-esque following this heart-warming romance has – based on the number one best-selling novel.

Usually being squeezed between two sets of late teens/twenty-somethings on the back row doesn't sound bad, but experiencing blubbing before a potentially heart-breaking scene took place was quite a bizarre experience – as the cinema-goers knew what was on the horizon, obviously being avid fans of the book.

There was literally crying all around me for the majority of the film.

That's because this is supposedly an extremely faithful adaptation of John Green's book about two cancer-stricken teens – played by Divergent's breakout stars Shailene Woodley and Ansel Elgort.

They star as Hazel Lancaster and Augustus 'Gus' Waters (who meet up after Hazel is forced to attend a cancer support group), two teenagers who share the same outlook on life – with sarcastic wit and disdain for the conventional – as their love sweeps them on an emotional journey.

Hazel is continuing to battle terminal thyroid cancer – which has spread to her lungs – and sports an oxygen tank to help her breathe, while ex-basketball star Gus, is recovering from the disease (specifically osteosarcoma) after getting his leg amputated.

But their love really blossoms when, having saved his 'wish' as a cancer sufferer, Gus whisks Hazel – along with Hazel's Mum Frannie as legal guardian – to Amsterdam, to meet the author (Willem Dafoe) of her favourite book, An Imperial Affliction.

And even though this might sound too much for a romantic drama with its potentially tragic terminal illness theme, the two leads prove so amiable it really does the source material justice without ever resorting to exploitation.

Folk Faeries ready to play

MUSIC

PEATBOG FAERIES PLUS SUPPORT

The Alban Arena

Friday, 8pm

BASED on the Isle of Skye, the Peatbog Faeries are one of Scotland's best known names in contemporary folk music.

Two years ago in 2012 they were a nominee for Best Live Act at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, having already twice won Live Act of the Year at the Scottish Traditional Music Awards.

The band have played to audiences around the world, from European Festivals, to Asia, Africa, America, Canada and Australia.

And now they will be playing at the Alban Arena on Friday at 8pm.

Among other things the band's music has been used for several TV and DVD soundtracks.

They have recorded six studio albums, having made their first live release in April 2009, and their latest CD, Dust was released on August 8 in 2011.

In some circles they have been referred to as the figurehead trailblazers of the Celtic Dance Music renaissance.

Their music encompasses traditional jigs and reels through jazz, hip hop, reggae and more.

The Peatbogs are made up of Peter Morrison on pipes and whistles, Ross Couper on the fiddle, Tom Salter on guitar, Greame Stafford on keyboards and Innes Hutton on bass and percussion.

For Friday's show, the band is set to be supported by local musician Stuart O'Connor.

O'Connor, who is an ex-My Pet Junkie band member, has four albums to his name and 1,500 shows played over seven years.

His music has been used on television and documentary programmes and has been heard by audiences all over the world, as he has embarked on extensive tours of New Zealand, Japan, Australia, Europe and The UK.

Tickets cost £17.50 and can be booked by calling the box office on 01727 844488.

You can also make online bookings on www.alban-arena.co.uk.

Join in as the kids sing their hearts out

INSPIRING Music, Central Bedfordshire's music service, presents Sing Out, Play Out.

Nearly 2,000 Key Stage 2 children from schools across Central Bedfordshire have had a term of 10 weekly singing lessons, a term of 10 weekly instrumental lessons and three return singing lessons as part of Inspiring Music's Sing Out Play Out First Access programme for schools.

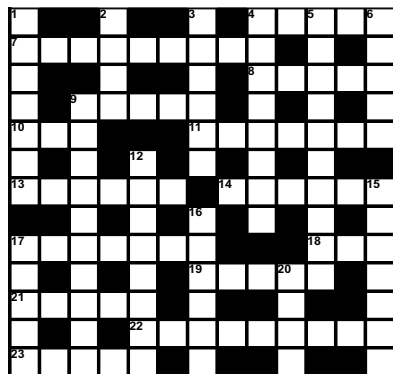

The Celebration Concerts are a culmination of the year's work and give the children an opportunity to perform what they have learnt on a professional stage.

So come and join them as they raise the roof over two evenings this Tuesday and Wednesday.

Among the participating schools are Ardley Hill Academy, Dunstable Icknield Lower School, Houghton Regis Primary School, Thomas Whitehead Primary School, Watling Lower School and Chalton Lower School.

Tickets are £6 and can be booked by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Connells

PRESS RELEASE

JUNE 2014

Summer market looks bright for home owners as seven buyers chase every property

Estate agency Connells in Luton is urging local home owners to seize the opportunity of a sale this summer. According to the branch team, Connells is seeing more buyers, more offers on properties and more sales compared to last year.

Because of increased activity across the local housing market, Connells is advising homeowners who wish to move this summer to get in touch. In May alone, its estate agency network recorded a 14% increase in buyers looking to purchase a home. This has fuelled a 23% increase in offers and a 15% increase in sales across Connells' branches.

Encouragingly, the number of new properties coming onto the market has risen by 6.5% but this still falls far short of demand. Indeed, Connells recorded seven buyers chasing each new home coming onto the market in May.

"Now is a great time to put your property on the market and secure a buyer," says Lee Clark, Branch Manager for Connells. "Not only are there lots of committed buyers actively seeking to purchase a home, but better weather and longer daylight hours allows homeowners to show off their properties to their maximum potential.

"This is especially true for properties with gardens as flowers will be in full bloom so a seller can make their property look its absolute best," Lee continues.

The Connells team is urging anyone who is thinking of selling to get in touch. If you are interested in moving home and would like to book a free market appraisal of your property, please contact Connells on 01582 450999 or email: Luton@connells.co.uk

Public Notices

Public notice - consultation on proposed Dog Control Orders by Central Bedfordshire Council

1. Introduction
Central Bedfordshire Council seeks to promote responsible dog ownership. We recognise that the vast majority of dog owners are caring and considerate as to the effect their dog has on others. One of the key issues in relation to promoting responsible dog ownership is tackling the problem of dog fouling – allowing a dog to foul and not clearing up after it.
The existing legislative framework concerning dog control and dog fouling is fragmented, limited in scope, and not fit for purpose e.g. significant types of land are not covered, or are covered by old bye-laws that are difficult to enforce and where a Fixed Penalty Notice cannot be issued.

2. Our proposal
Central Bedfordshire Council is consulting the public on proposals for introducing a range of new Dog Control Orders, designed to meet local needs and that provide more flexibility in promoting responsible dog ownership. Orders may apply to any land which is open to the air and to which the public are entitled to have access whether on payment or otherwise, or to a particular type of land or location. (They exclude Forestry Commission Land which is exempt from the legislation but does include Access Land). The proposed orders are:

a. Fouling of land by Dogs Order
This order will make it an offence for a person in charge of a dog to fail to remove dog foul.
This will apply across the whole of Central Bedfordshire on any land that is open to the air and to which the public are entitled to have access, whether on payment or otherwise. The following are examples of the type of land to which this order would apply to: parks, public open spaces, town centres, roads, pavements, public footpaths, byways, bridleways, woodlands, agricultural land, access land and common land.

b. Dogs on Lead by Direction Order
This order will make it an offence for a person in charge of a dog to fail to put that dog on a lead, and keep it on a lead, by direction of an authorised Council officer, dog warden, site manager or park ranger.
It will apply across the whole of Central Bedfordshire on any land to which the public have access whether on payment or otherwise. The order will enable an authorised officer to respond to a situation where a dog is not under proper control and is likely to cause a nuisance or disturbance to other people or animals.

c. Dogs on Lead Order
This order will make it an offence for a person in charge of a dog to fail to ensure that it is on a lead of no more than 2 metres on any land to which this order applies.
The order will apply to land across Central Bedfordshire which is used as a cemetery, burial ground, garden of remembrance, or marked sports pitch. It will include all designated carriageways (A and B roads) and their adjoining footpaths and verges. And at countryside sites it will apply to some car parks, high use areas, including picnic sites, grazing areas and areas where wildlife is sensitive to disturbance by dogs and grazing areas. Sites affected are: Rushmere Country Park, Dunstable Downs, Houghton Hall Park, Sharpenhoe Clappers, Sundon Hills, Tottenhamhoe Knolls picnic site, and Whipsnade Tree Cathedral.
To examine maps detailing the proposed restriction at countryside sites please go to www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/consultations
Alternatively copies are available to be inspected in the reception area at the following Central Bedfordshire Council offices: Watling House, High St. North, Dunstable, Bedfordshire, LU6 1LF; Priory House, Monks Walk, Chicksands, Shefford, Bedfordshire, SG17 5TQ.

Public Notices

d. Dogs Exclusion Order
This order will make it an offence for a person in charge of a dog to permit the dog to enter or remain in an exclusion area.
The order will apply to all enclosed children's play areas and enclosed multi-use games areas across Central Bedfordshire. It will also restrict dogs from certain countryside sites including wildlife areas, education areas, and areas of designated recreational use: the only site affected at the commencement of the consultation is Rushmere Country Park.
To examine maps detailing the proposed restriction at countryside sites please go to www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/consultations
Alternatively copies are available to be inspected from the Council Offices at c above.

e. Specified Number of Dogs onto Land Order
This order will make it an offence for a person in charge of dogs to take more than the maximum number of dogs specified on to any land to which this order applies. Advice from the Dept. for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) is that the maximum should not exceed six.
This order will only be made by exception to deal with a very local problem. There are no such problem areas identified at the commencement of this consultation.

Dog Control Orders provide exemptions in particular cases for registered blind people, deaf people, and for other people with disabilities who make use of trained assistance dogs. Additionally no offence will be committed if a person has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with an order, or the person in control of the land has consented to his failing to do so.
The penalty for committing an offence contained in a Dog Control Order is a fine: alternatively the opportunity to pay a Fixed Penalty Notice of £80 may be offered in place of prosecution that can be reduced to £50 if paid within 14 days.
These proposals seek to strike a balance between the interests of those in charge of dogs and those affected by the activities of dogs, bearing in mind the need for people, in particular children, to have access to dog-free areas and areas where dogs are kept under proper control, and the need for those in charge of dogs to have access to areas where they can exercise their dogs without undue restriction. It also recognises that any order made requires enforcement, and that the Council has a limited amount of resource available for this purpose. Enforcement would be carried out by authorised Council officers, dog wardens, and countryside site managers and park rangers.
Signs will be erected to advise those in charge of dogs of the relevant restrictions in their locality.

3. The consultation process
Central Bedfordshire Council welcomes your response to the proposed Orders. We are interested in everyone's views. You can have your say either:

- Online at www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/consultations; or
- Complete a questionnaire which is available to collect from the Council Offices at Watling House, Dunstable or Priory House, Shefford, or can be requested by phoning 0300 300 5639. Completed questionnaires are to be sent to:
FREEPOST RSJS GBB2 S9ZT (you do not need a stamp)
Dog Control Order Consultation
Central Bedfordshire Council, Priory House, Monks Walk, Chicksands, Shefford SG17 5TQ

The consultation closes on Monday 28 July 2014. For more information about this proposal please contact Steve Barrett by telephone on 0300 300 5639 or email steve.barrett@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk

SOUTH KOREA GETS SERIOUS

With smart looks, a practical interior, great build quality and solid engineering, Kia's third generation Carens is a much improved 7-seat compact MPV. Though well appointed, it offers strong value and efficient running costs. In other words, you get pretty much everything families are looking for in this segment. With this car, the modern era rejuvenation of Kia's model range is complete.

Kia reckons that this is the most stylish car in its sector, a bold claim in a segment boasting some distinctive looking rivals. Carens buyers only get one body size: unlike Ford, Citroen and Renault, Kia doesn't see the need to offer separate five and seven-seat bodyshapes in this segment. It never did previously either, but older Carens models offered the choice of either five or seven seats. Here, you've a seven-seat-only design.

Seating at the very back is fine for kids and at least now easier to access thanks to a more effective middle row tilting and sliding mechanism. As for the middle row, well it now has three separate chairs that recline and slide. Luggage space is restricted to just 103-litres with all seats in place, but rises to 492-litres with the third row flattened and 1,560-litres with the second row flat too.

Under the bonnet, buyers get to choose between a 133bhp 1.6-litre GDI petrol unit or a 1.7-litre CRDi turbodiesel, offered in 114 or 134bhp states of tune, the latter available with the option of a 6-speed auto gearbox. Most will be choosing between the GDI petrol unit or the lower-powered diesel, both capable of around 112mph flat out.

Ex-Saints' heroes in Luton coaching roles

RUGBY UNION

LUTON Rugby have made positive strides following last season's disappointment.

Director of Rugby Paul Allen has been busy bringing in personnel on and off the field.

Luton have signed two new coaches who won the European Cup in the late 90s as players with Northampton Saints, Matt Allen and John Phillips joining as backs and forwards coaches respectively.

Matt Allen was also capped several times by England A, who are now England Saxons.

Last season, Luton finished in fourth place and Paul Allen is relishing the prospect of working alongside the two and is hopeful of what they can bring to the team.

He said: "I can't wait to start working with them. I know them well from our time working together coaching East Midlands under-16s and feel they can offer a lot to the club.

"The main thing they will bring is the experience of playing rugby at the highest level."

Luton's team is still young and learning, but Allen feels the new additions will provide a welcome boost to a team, saying: "They will also help to develop what is still a very young side into the best they can be with their invaluable experience.

"What they will bring into the club is immeasurable."

The Luton academy, while not as prolific as Saints or Bedford has potential and graduate Steve Ellis has been taken on trial by Bedford.

Aside from what they will bring on the training pitch, he also thinks having high profile names at the club will help off it, saying: "They will also be a draw for players, who will look at Luton and see the opportunity to be coached by European cup winners."

Pre-season starts on July 1 and the Luton boss is eager for the day to come.

He said: "I can't wait to get going and neither can the lads.

"We're running a touch league and the players have been coming down, but it's nothing compared to the actual thing. We can't wait."

Along with training, comes friendly games

POSITIVE STRIDES: Luton will be hoping for success after making a couple of new coaching appointments and Luton aren't going to shy away from a challenge when it comes to their warm up games.

Allen said: "We've got two tough away friendlies just before the season proper begins.

On changes to the squad, he said: "The majority of the squad from last season is still the same but I plan on making a few additions to the team and already have made moves to bring in a few new faces.

"The main signing is David Duffus, who has recently retired from the British Army where he was captain of their senior rugby team.

"He can play across the back row and is a very experienced and accomplished player, especially in sevens rugby, and I look forward to seeing him in action next season and feel his experience will really improve the team."

He went on to say: "I'm not stopping there either, we have made a couple of additions but I am looking at bringing in some other experienced players so as to get a balance with the young players we have already."

Pro contract up for grabs

A NEW cricket tournament is offering a fast track into the professional game.

The Luton T20 Lord's Taverners City Cup sees local teams face off in one day cricket league, with the top two teams going on to the final.

The winners will then go on to a national quarter final against a Leicestershire team.

The national tournament's best player will be awarded a contract with Marylebone Cricket Club (MCC), who are based at the iconic ground Lord's.

The MCC Young Cricketers programme has been the starting point for England cricketers Ian Botham and Phil Tufnell.

The competition is being supported by both the England and Wales Cricket Board and Wisden.

The Luton competition got underway on Friday June 13 at Wardown Park.

Luton Tigers faced Luton Lions in a highly competitive start to the tournament.

Luton Lions won the toss and elected to bowl.

Tigers got off to a good start setting a very competitive score of 182-4.

Zahid Khan proved to be the anchor of the innings, scoring 58, which was helped by some poor fielding.

The Lions needed to get off to a good start if they wanted to win, which they did reaching 60 by the end of the fifth over.

However, it soon fell apart due to some tight bowling seeing them finish on 165-7, giving Tigers the win by 17 runs.

Town return my biggest test says Jonathan Smith

BIGGEST CHALLENGE: Jonathan Smith (right) aims to win back his midfield berth

FOOTBALL

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town's Jonathan Smith believes regaining his midfield berth at Kenilworth Road for their Football League return will be one of the biggest challenges of his career.

The 27-year-old has played just three competitive minutes since a horrific leg break in Town's 2-1 Boxing Day win at Barnet, which ruled him out of the remainder of the Hatters' title-winning campaign.

Smith was handed a late substitute role in Luton's final Skril Premier game of the season at Hyde, to the delight of both colleagues and supporters and after strenuous work to be fit for the start of pre-season training on June 30, the talented middle man is hoping to get his Hatters' tenure back on track.

"The off-season has been about getting myself back to full fitness up to this point," said

Smith.

"The broken leg was a real shock because I have never picked any major injuries before and it took time to get used to.

"It has taken a lot of mental strength to get me where I am now and I know it will be one of my biggest and hardest challenges to impress the gaffer (John Still) and get back into the team."

Smith will be all the more intent on getting back into the Hatters' starting eleven after Town were paired with his former club Swindon Town in the Capital One Cup first round draw last Tuesday.

The versatile midfielder helped the Robins to the League Two title in his solitary season at the County Ground back in 2011/12.

However he insists his main aim is playing regular football at Kenilworth Road again.

"A lot of people have been asking me about the Swindon game but I am honestly more interested in just getting fit right now," said Smith.

"Nevertheless, I am very, very excited for the game because I had a great time there and achieved great things."

Luton were also handed their League Two fate this week with the fixtures having been released last Wednesday.

Still's men begin life back in the Football League with a long trip to Carlisle United on August 9 and Smith is confident Town can flourish on the next level.

"We do not want to be in League Two to simply make up the numbers," said Smith.

"We will be hoping we can maintain a position near the top of the table throughout the season."

"Promotion is the aim for every team in this league and we are no different."

Smith's midfield role could be under threat from namesake Luton Town Youth Team captain Charlie Smith, who signed a one-year professional contract with the Hatters last week.

The 18-year-old impressed for the under-18s last season, notching ten goals in 18 games.
